

The MOJO Playlist

The best songs on the box, at the movies, on album and on-line right now...

MOJO'S TOP 10

1 LOVE IS THE MESSAGE LOVE INC

Prolific YouTube uploader OldSkoolChoonz is fast becoming a hero to those of us who remember 1991's podiums and Air Max with goosebumps and a grin. Try this one for size, fellow old ravers.

Find it: www.youtube.com/watch?v=VA1ybApD8Ak

2 ORGANS LOST AT SEA LAWRENCE ENGLISH

This Australian composer conjures up surreal scenarios with electronics. This one sounds like a distress call from a dying Hammond.

Find it: Kiri No Oto (TOUCH MUSIC)

3 CIMA VERDE CHRIS WATSON

Wildlife sound recordist – and one-time Cabaret Voltaire collaborator – turns the groans of wind, thawing snow and the caws of ravens into a modernist rumble. Beautiful!

Find it: Cima Verde (SOUND THRESHOLD)

READERS' TOP 10

1 COMING IN ON A WING AND A PRAYER JOSEPH SPENCE

"The angular guitar and almost nonsensical vocals should have decimated this heroic tale," says Cathy White. "But it was enough to influence Ry Cooder."

Find it: Good Morning Mr Walker (WHODUNNIT)

2 NORMAN 3 TEENAGE FANCLUB

Bandwagonesque tends to get the accolades, but for Hugobax Thirteen is where it's at. "I bloody love every track but if I have to pick one, well this is my favourite."

Find it: Thirteen (GANN)

3 GONNA SEARCH THE GUESS WHO?

Mullholland_56 "tried to learn the keyboard solo and has subsequently become a recluse". The best garage rock not from Seattle.

Find it: Shakin' All Over/Hey Ho!/It's Time (FRIDAY MUSIC)

